He was unable to talk coherently, but two checks on Brigham City banks were found in his pockets. He was taken to the Dee hospital.

FLETCHER STOPS LANDING OF HUERTA MUNITIONS OF WAR

to get out of there again," he said. "I am for the committee resolution because if this assassin, this traitor, this brute, who is now in authority in Mexico should salute the flag before we go into Mexico we would not have to go. Under the Lodge resolution we would have to go."

Lodge Resolution Too Broad. "The senator from Massachusetts wants the resolution on such broad grounds that it will be sufficient to make us stay in Mexico when we get there. When I want to go on such narrow grounds that if Huerta dies, if Huerta is assassinated, or if Huerta salutes the flag, we can come home."

Senator Bradley, Republican, of Kentucky, declared his willingness to support the president.

Bradley Supports President. "I am not only in favor of sending the flag to demand reparation for the flag to demand reparation for the flag," he said, "but I am in favor of sending the flag to Mexico to protect American citizens from rapine and plunder and murder. I agree with the senator from Massachusetts that the present resolution is not broad enough."

After Senator Bradley concluded, Senator Works offered his resolution to accept Huerta's expression of regret as full satisfaction. Senator Works pleaded for peace.

Works Pleads for Peace. "How much better it would have been," he said, "if the president himself had declared that the apology of the discharge of our sailors from arrest was sufficient. I fear we lack the moral courage to say to this poor stricken nation that the apology already made is enough."

Senator Works insisted that he had not offered his resolution to criticize the course pursued by the president. He did not expect his resolution to be passed, the senator said, asserting further that "we are going headlong into the terrible conditions of war."

Result Will Be War. "No matter what may be the limits in the mind of the president in the matter," said Senator McCumber, Republican, "the result of the resolution, no matter how worded will be war. It will be all the war that a poor, internally torn, pleading and exhausted country can maintain against this most powerful of all nations on earth."

"Does the senator regard an insult to an American flag on an American boat, representing American sovereignty as a trivial offense?" demanded Senator Williams.

"It is not trivial," said Senator McCumber, "but I do not place the uniform above a live American and if one justifies war, the many more times will the other justify war."

Exodus of Americans. Secretary Bryan said just before entering the cabinet meeting that there was a general exodus of Americans from Mexico City to Vera Cruz and that many Americans at the latter place were getting aboard the Ward liner Esperanza.

Senator McCumber declared that under no circumstances should congress place the United States in a position of accepting "either by implication or otherwise, an alliance with the murderer and bandit, General Villa."

"Beside this atrocious murder, General Huerta seems an angel of purity," he said. "I hope that we will give the president full and ample authority to make war or not, as he sees fit," Senator McCumber concluded.

FEDERALS MEET WITH INSURGENTS

Officers at Border Discuss Coalition of Forces Against United States.

Laredo, Texas, April 21.—It was authoritatively reported here today that two federal officers from the Nuevo Laredo garrison, bearing a flag of truce, went down the river yesterday to parley with rebel officers. REFUGEES ARRIVE FROM CHIHUAHUA

Consul's Instructions to Leave Promptly Obeyed by American, German and French.

El Paso, Texas, April 21.—Six Americans, eight Germans and nine Frenchmen and women arrived here today from Chihuahua. The Americans confirmed the statement that they were instructed to leave by Marion Fletcher, the American consul. They said that Mexicans in Chihuahua held the belief that the rebels will be unable to remain out of the Huerta-Washington complication, and added that rebel leaders feel compelled to accept the view that the blockading of Tampico and Vera Cruz will be a national matter affecting the honor of every Mexican, regardless of political affiliations.

Letcher, they said, was endeavoring to get the Americans out without attracting undue attention, and his efforts in this direction were being assisted by General Carranza. Most of the latter's conference with General Villa yesterday, they asserted, was devoted to consideration of the Tampico incident and its developments as affecting the Constitutionalists.

Grave View of Situation. The gravest view was taken, according to report, in the cafes, clubs and other gathering places. Mexican citizens, practically all of whom are rebel sympathizers, declared openly that President Wilson's course is an affront to the Mexican nation and that a common enemy must be met by an united country.

Meanwhile there was no definite announcement of policy on the part of Carranza, the Americans reported, adding that it seemed to be his purpose by silence to imply the truth of reports that he would continue with the revolution regardless of foreign complications. This, they said, in view of the excited talk in the cafes and elsewhere, deceived nobody.

In El Paso prominent rebel sympathizers were unanimous, so far as they could be questioned, in the view that not Huerta alone but the nation at large was at stake.

Ambassador Jusserand, Ambassador Spring-Rice and Ambassador Riano, were Mr. Bryan's next callers. Each emerged refusing to answer any questions.

mind him of his often repeated remark that the only circumstances under which he would return to Mexico would be when peace had been established there or when his country was attacked by a foreign power.

Some months ago General Diaz urged General Huerta, as an act of patriotism, to retire from the dictatorship of Mexico in favor of some one who could obtain the confidence of all factions in the country.

Major General Wood who will relinquish his office as chief of staff at 12 o'clock tonight, will be in supreme command of all the troops and will follow General Bailey within a few days, if action comes.

General Bailey is now stationed at Fort Totten, N. Y., in command of the north Atlantic coast artillery.

BIG NEW SHIPS READY TO SAIL

New York, N. Y., April 21.—The new superdreadnoughts New York and Texas, the two largest battleships in the world, are expected to be on duty in southern waters soon. It was announced at the Brooklyn navy yard today that the New York, which was placed in commission last week, would sail for Guantanamo, Cuba, on Sunday. The New York has been under orders from some time to proceed to sea for her "shaking down."

Since the Mexican situation became acute, the work of putting the finishing touches on the vessel has been rushed. A large quantity of ammunition was being stowed away on the New York and the Texas today.

"Unless orders to the contrary are received before Sunday," said an official at the yard, "the New York will proceed to Guantanamo. There she will be close to the Atlantic fleet which she can join at any time."

The Texas is ready for sea duty on short notice.

San Francisco, April 21.—The cruiser South Dakota, from the Puget Sound navy yard, entered San Francisco bay at 4 a. m. today. She proceeded to California City to take on coal preparatory to departure for Mexican waters.

About 500 marines from the Mare Island navy yard also will be taken aboard the South Dakota, which brings 260 marines from the north.

San Francisco, April 21.—Commanded by Captain William Henry Pritchett, recently arrived from the Seattle recruiting station, 300 marines left Mare Island navy yard today for Tiburon, to board the collier Jupiter, which will take them as far as the advance base at San Diego.

TROOPS READY FOR TRANSPORTS

Galveston, Texas, April 21.—Troops of the Fifth brigade, U. S. A., under command of Colonel Daniel Corman, were ready today to go on board the four army transports here at a moment's notice.

The brigade, which is composed of the Fourth, Seventh, Nineteenth and Twenty-eighth infantry, will be reinforced by the Sixth cavalry, one battery of the Fourth field artillery, company E, engineers; company D, signal corps, and an ambulance corps. The full brigade numbers approximately 4700 officers and men.

A wireless message announced that the torpedo boats Flusser, Preston and Reid would arrive in Galveston today. Their coming was a surprise to army and navy officials here as they had been last reported in St. Joseph's bay, Florida.

REBEL COMMANDERS ISSUE PROCLAMATION

Douglas, Ariz., April 21.—Colonel Pelias Calles, Constitutional commander on the border, issued a proclamation today assuring protection to all Americans in his territory in the event of hostilities between the United States and Huerta.

A large number of American women and children left Cananea today for the American border.

STORMY SCENE STIRS LONDON

London, April 21.—A stormy scene was created in the House of Commons today when Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, demanded a judicial inquiry into the naval and military movements recently contemplated by the government in Ulster. The Unionists charge that these movements constituted a plot to provoke a rising in Ulster.

Premier Asquith refused a judicial inquiry as he said the charges had been proved false, but he challenged Mr. Law to make any accusations he wished to make in the house itself when he would be given the fullest opportunity for discussion.

Amid the cheers and angry shouts of their supporters, the two leaders took their places alternately at the table challenging each other.

Uproar followed Mr. Law's declaration that the statements made by Premier Asquith and his colleagues had been proved untrue.

The scene ended when amid ministerial cries of "take your day for discussion," Mr. Law said that after he had seen what the promised "white paper" contained, he would consider what steps it was worth while to take.

COLORADO RIVER MENACES VALLEY

Washington, April 21.—Advises to Secretary Lane today indicated that the Colorado river, in southern Arizona, was far above flood stage and that its banks had been washed out for 1000 feet. The waters are a menace to the entire Imperial Valley region, with its valuable property and great irrigation works. The Imperial Valley canal has been damaged already and the situation is reported as growing more serious hourly.

Secretary Lane called a conference of officers of the reclamation service, who hurriedly considered emergency measures. In the reclamation fund the secretary has $60,000 available for immediate use to prevent disaster, but it is not unlikely that he may ask congress tomorrow for an emergency appropriation.
